

Now Available...

Accessibility Trainings for Your Staff Because the Outdoors is for Everyone!

Is your organization ready for the rising number of people with disabilities now forming the single largest minority in the U.S.? Just like you, they are seeking access to parks and programs like yours. Let the award-winning NatureAccess[™] program help you start developing programs that are inclusive of ALL people.

Workshops are hands-on, featuring combinations of topics tailored for your needs. These may include:

- Nature Deficit Disorder & Sensory Functioning
- Disability Etiquette & Sensitivity Training
- Challenges to Learning & Understanding
- Accessing Trails and Beyond
- Principles of Universal Design
- Creating Supportive Partnerships
- Developing Accessible Activities
- Staying Out of Hot Water: The Right to Privacy, the I.E.P. and Section 504
- Strategies for Inclusive Programs:
Assistive Technology, Instructional
Techniques, Alternate Formats

All participants receive materials and a copy of Making Outdoor Programs Accessible (also sold separately at www.mohonkpreserve.org/index.php?education). Consultations may be scheduled in conjunction with a NatureAccess[™] training.

For more information contact: Kathy Ambrosini, Director of Education, (845)255-0919 ext. 233 or kambrosini@mohonkpreserve.org.

NatureAccess