

Wish List for 2010

Become a Ridge Protector by underwriting one or a portion of the following costs. Each of these items helps protect this mountain refuge for future generations. Thank you!

Inspire others...

- Sponsor program speakers or live animal shows at the Preserve: $2,125
- Spread the word about our education programs: $350
- Provide food for hungry birds in the winter: $400
- Help equip educators on the land and in the classroom: $500
- Enhance the Kids Corner with new books, nature games and activities: $250
- Support expansion of summer camps in 2010! Start up equipment for new camp: $950
- Digital camcorders for Education programs: $500
- Get more kids into nature! Support our No Child Left Inside movement: $2,500
- Provide check ups and supplements for our ambassador turtles: $350
- Learning happens everywhere at the Preserve. Provide new signs to teach visitors on the land. $1,640
- Maintain plant and animal specimens at the Daniel Smiley Research Center: $700
- Help visitors understand the ridge with new displays at the Visitor Center. $1,250

Protect the land...

- Help ensure property lines are secure: $3500
- Go electronic! Integrate land protection information and surveys. Digitize survey and GIS integration: $1,000
- Make the land more accessible to everyone. Provide new surfacing suitable for wheelchairs on sensory trail: $13,000
- Hiking Maps: $4,100
- Be a life saver! Cliff rescue and first aid supplies: $3,812
- Keep Rangers on the move: $11,200
- Help maintain the Daniel Smiley Research Center: $5,257
- "If I had a hammer..." Provide equipment for volunteers to upkeep the Preserve: $962

Total Wish List Needs: $54,346